

Name: _____

Date: _____

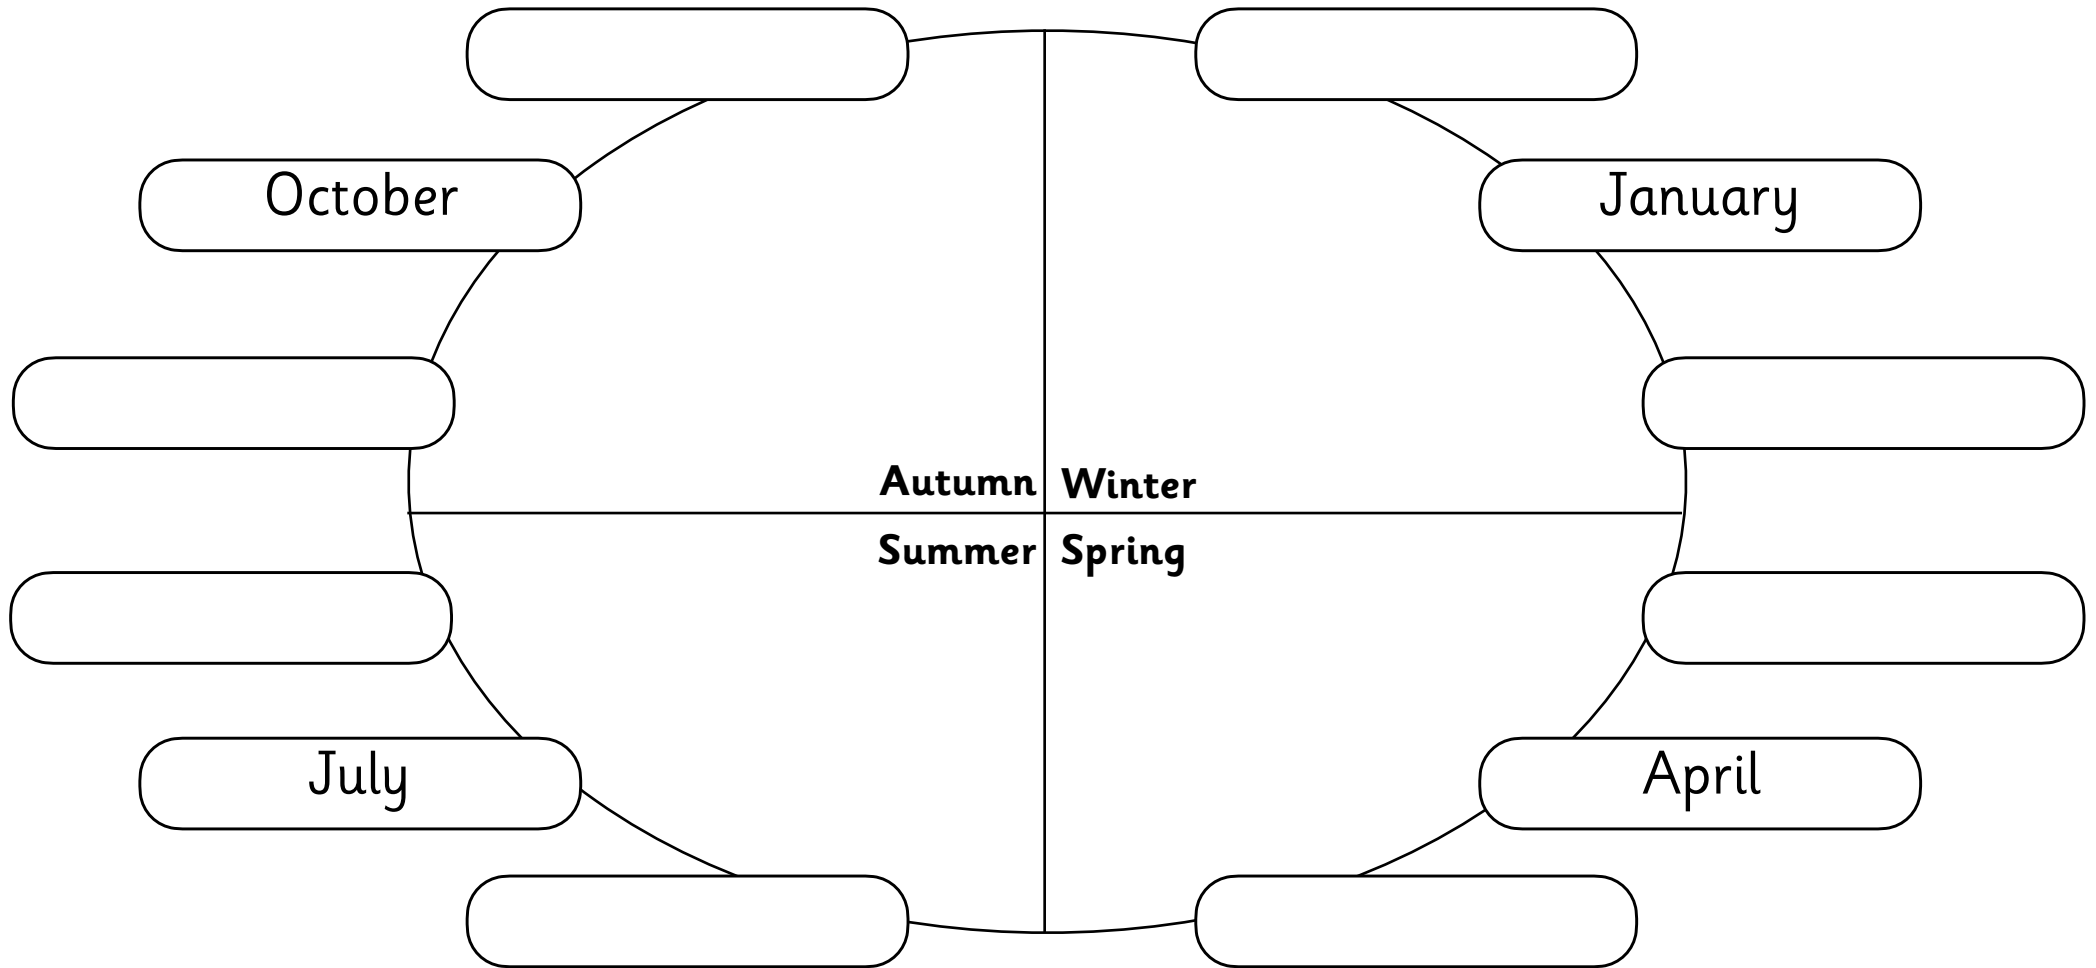

Write the name of each month in the Season Circle, then draw a picture of each season.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Write the names of each month in the correct order, then draw a picture of each season.

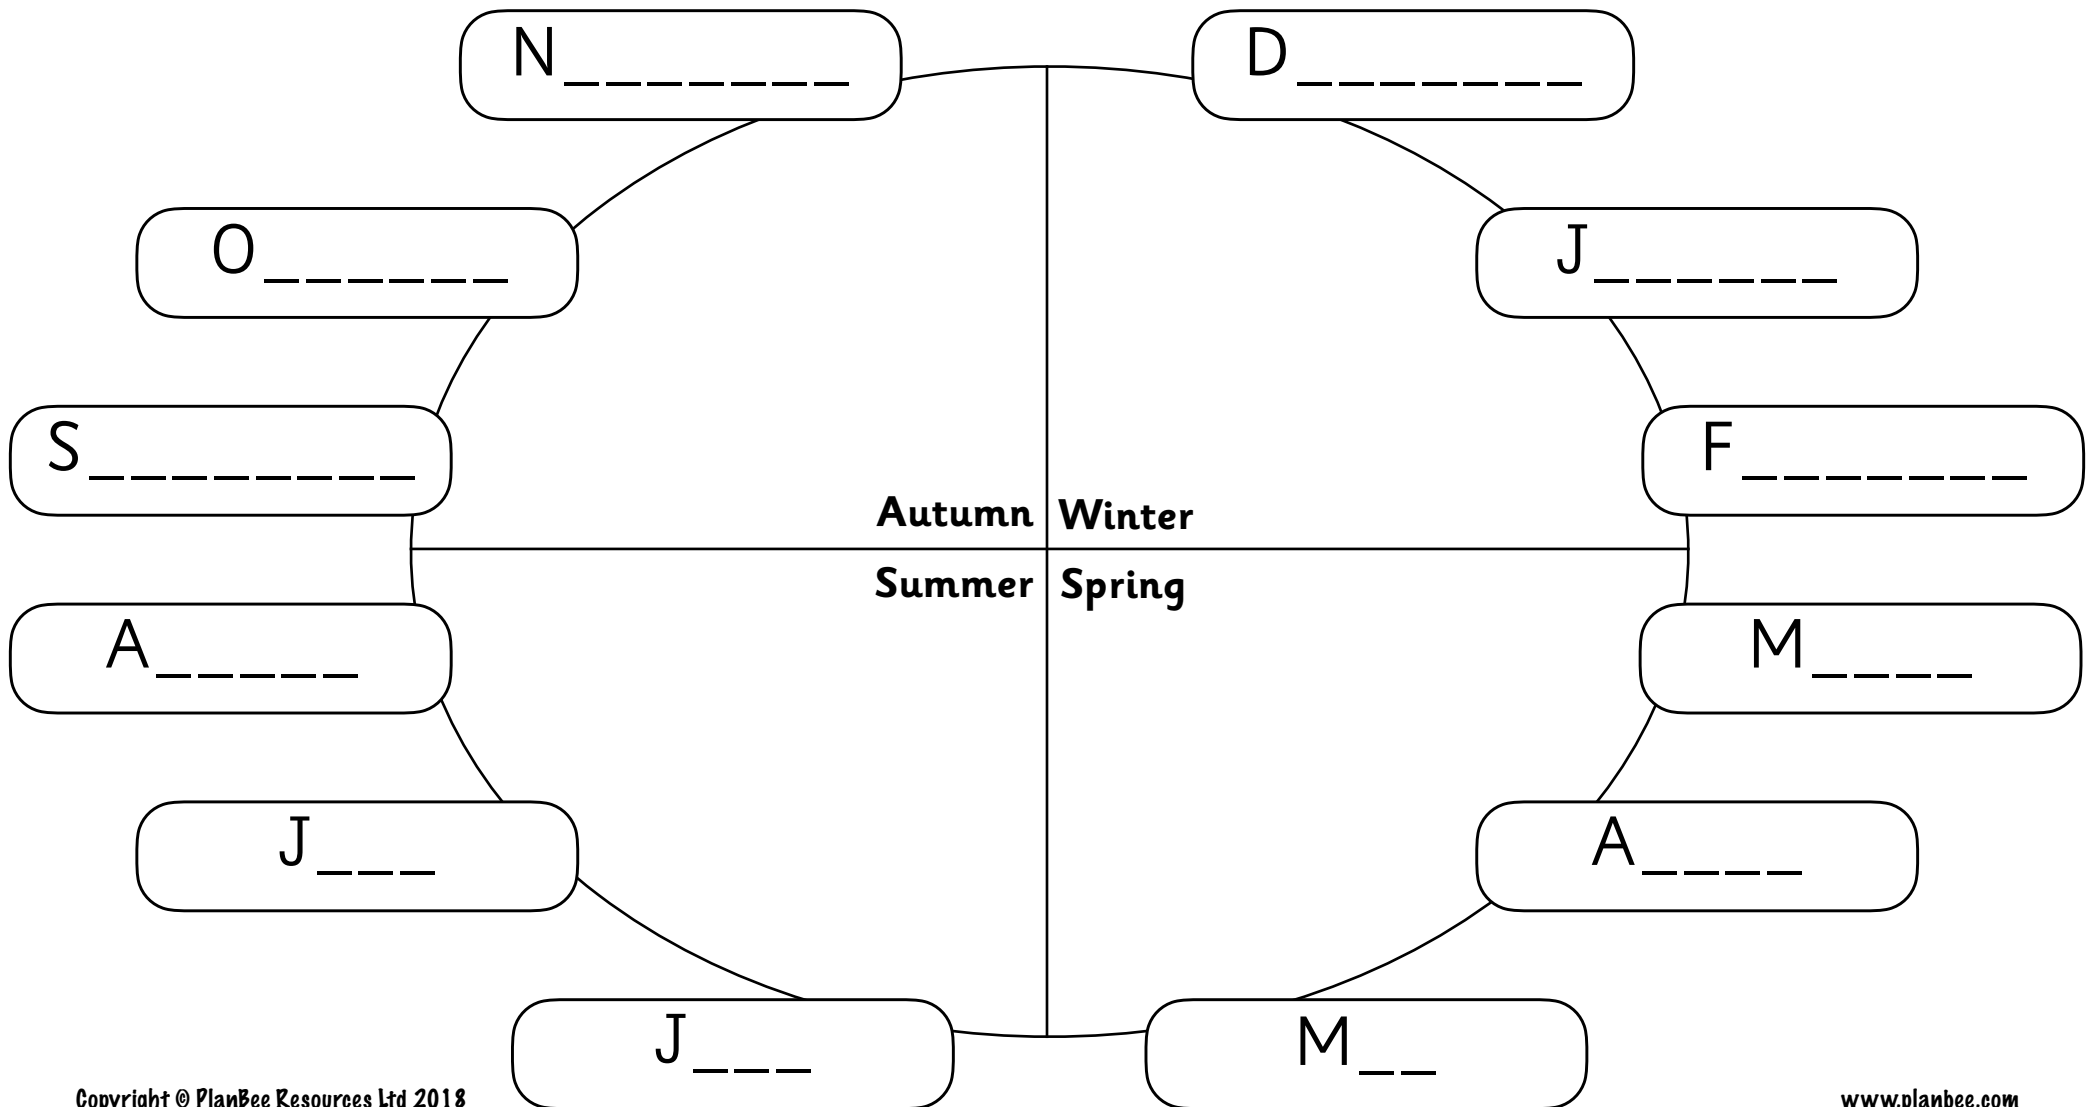

March November May February June August December September

Name: _____

Date: _____

Write the names of each month in the correct order, then draw a picture of each season.

The month after
January is February.

The month before
June is July.

The month after
October is November.

The month before
September is July.

The month before
January is March.

The month after
August is April.

The month after
May is June.

The month before
September is August.

The month before
December is November.

The month after
February is March.

July is two months
before September.

March is two months after January.

December is two months after July.

February is two month
after December.

June is three months before November.

May is three months before January.

January

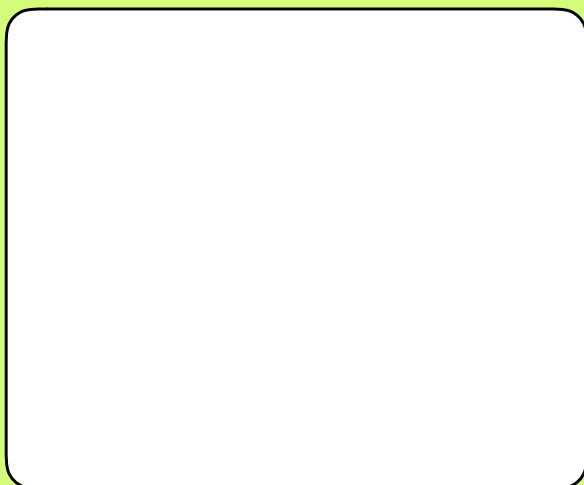

February

March

April

May

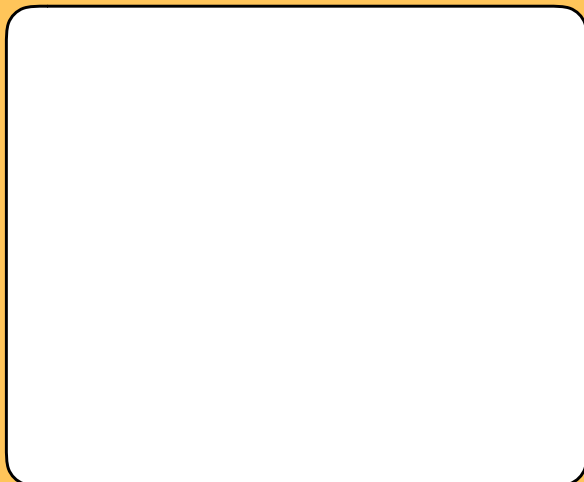

June

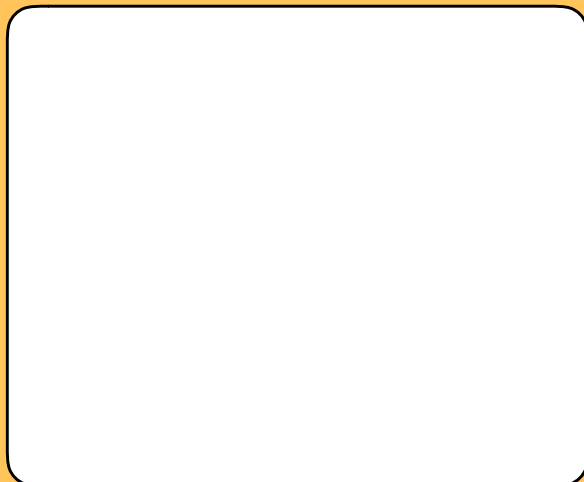

July

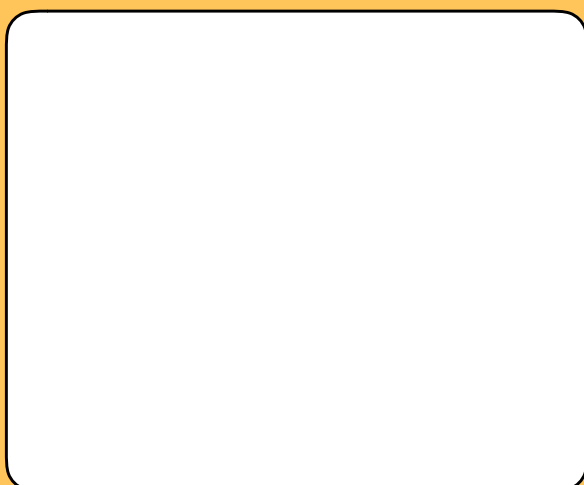

August

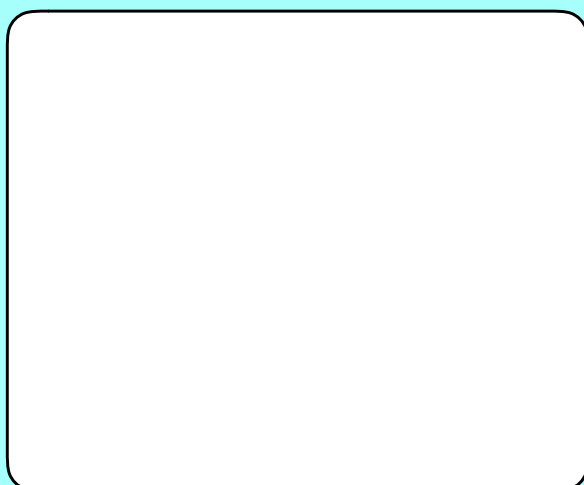

September

October

November

December

January

February

March

April

May

June

July

August

September

October

November

December

January

February

March

April

May

June

July

August

September

October

November

December

Name: _____

Date: _____

Today I have been identifying and ordering the months of the year.

Stick photo here

Which resources did you use?

Draw the face on the bee to self-assess your work.

